

ETHICAL ISSUES IN EFFECTIVELY PROVIDING LGBTQ-INCLUSIVE HOSPICE AND PALLIATIVE CARE

DESCRIPTION:

When there is tension between values/beliefs of an individual health care professional and the ethical imperative to treat all patients with dignity and respect, conflict (and legal issues) may arise. This webinar will explore potential conflicts and offer strategies and tools for professionals in effectively serving the LGBTQ communities.

PROGRAM DETAILS:

This presentation features experienced professionals offering their own expertise on the topic. On the screen, you will see the slide presentation and will be able to hear the experts talking and presenting. If you login for the live version of the program, you'll also have the opportunity to email or text the experts questions that they will discuss and answer during the program's Q & A session.

CONTINUING EDUCATION (CE) CREDITS:

This program is valid for 1.5 hours of CE credit. The CE cost is $9 per certificate*. CE credits for the live event are available for 30-days, until May 17, 2018. CE credits for the on-demand viewing must be completed in the 30-day window following registration purchase date. For sites that purchased year-long access, last possible date to receive CE credits is April 16, 2019.

A complete list of board approvals for this webinar program is posted to HFA's website at www.hospicefoundation.org.

*An individual registration includes 1 CE certificate

An Unlimited CE package is available for multi-viewer registrations. If purchased, the program organizer will be provided with a unique payment code to distribute to their attendees to use in place of payment online.

COURSE COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS:

Participants must attend the entire 1.5 hour program. Partial credit is not awarded. Participants must also complete the entire CE process online, before the CE deadline (see above for specific CE deadlines). In order to go online, attendees will need to enter in a Course Code, which is only provided at the end of the program. Attendees will also need to enter in their Site ID# (same as their Invoice # when they purchased the program). The online CE process includes a required evaluation form and exam. The exam must be completed at 80% or above (the exam may be re-taken, if necessary). Attendees will be able to choose the board they wish to receive credit from (from Hospice Foundation of America's list of board approvals*) and will then be able to print their CE certificate immediately after completing all CE requirements online (on HFA's CE site at educate.hospicefoundation.org).

*A complete list of board approvals for this webinar program is posted to HFA's website at www.hospicefoundation.org.

EXPERT PANELIST:

Kimberly D. Acquaviva, PhD, MSW, CSE, is both Founding Faculty at George Washington University's School of Nursing and the first non-nurse to receive tenure there. As a social worker teaching within the school, Dr. Acquaviva's research and scholarship are interdisciplinary and collaborative. Dr. Acquaviva is nationally known as an innovator and authority on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and/or questioning (LGBTQ) aging and end-of-life issues. She is the former Co-Chair of the American Society on Aging's LGBT Aging Issues Network (LAIN) and she served as one of four LGBT aging researchers responsible for overseeing the development, implementation and analysis of Still Out, Still Aging: The MetLife Study of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Baby Boomers, a national survey of 1,200 lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender baby boomers and 1,200 of their heterosexual counterparts. Dr. Acquaviva developed the content, script and storyboards for "Aging and End-of-Life Issues in the LGBT Community" for the Hospice Foundation of America's Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)-funded online course as part of a national education/outreach initiative on hospice care. She serves on the editorial boards of several refereed journals including Sexuality Research and Social Policy, Journal of Gay and Lesbian Social Services, and Journal of Ethnographic & Qualitative Research. Her recent book (Spring 2017), LGBTQ-Inclusive Hospice and Palliative Care: A Practical Guide to Transforming Professional Practice, is published by Harrington Park Press and distributed by Columbia University.

MODERATOR:

Kathleen Taylor MA, LMHC, is a Florida Licensed Mental Health Counselor and Qualified Clinical Supervisor. For over a decade, she served as the director of community engagement at the country's largest nonprofit hospice organization. Among her accomplishments, she led the organization's advance care planning education programs, and developed their first training program on empathy and compassion in patient care. In years prior, Kathleen managed an award-winning national Robert Wood Johnson Foundation grant program establishing grassroots coalitions to improve end-of-life care, and worked for over 7 years as a hospice counselor serving patients and families coping with life-limiting illness, caregiving and grief.
