

End-of-Life Ethics in a Changing World (2023)

Edited by Kenneth J. Doka, Bruce Jennings, Timothy W. Kirk, and Amy S. Tucci

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword

Bruce Jennings and Timothy W. Kirk

Hospice and Ethics in Context

1. The Ethics of Hospice: Does Hospice History and Philosophy Match the Current Landscape of End-of-Life Care?
Craig Dresang
2. Voices: Hospice—From Social Movement to Industry
Christy Whitney Borchard
3. End-of-Life Ethics: A Social Ecology Approach
Kenneth J. Doka
4. Voices: The Liminal State of Hospice: Looking Ahead to the Next 40 Years
Alexis Drutchas

Ethics in Practice

5. Pandemic Experience of Suffering: Ethical Justification for Palliative Care
Mary Beth Quaranta Morrissey
6. Cultural Humility: Necessary but Insufficient for Equitable Access to Care
Karen Bullock and Ramona Bullock-Johnson
7. Voices: The Evolution of the Art and Science of Nursing: A Hospice Nurse's Perspective on Ethics and Charting
Angela Novas
8. Providing Ethical Guidance to Surrogate Decision Makers
Lauren Jodi Van Scoy and Erika VanDyke

9. Ethical Issues in Pediatric Care at End of Life
Kelstan Ellis and Jenni Linebarger
10. Patient Choice as Death Approaches
Michelle Brassil, Adrienne Jones-Adamczyk, and Patricia Mayer
11. Voices: One Physician's Reflections on Patient Choices at End of Life
Hank Willner
12. Ethical Issues in Pain Management at End of Life
Shana A. Wierchowski and Kathleen Broglio
13. Voices: Ethics in Grief Counseling
Patti Anewalt

Emerging Ethical and Organizational Issues

14. Effective Ethics Committees for Hospices: A Practical Guide
Ryan Pferdehirt
15. The Case for Ethics Education in Hospice and Palliative Care
Jennifer Moore Ballentine
16. Ethical Provision and Use of Telehealth at End of Life
Michelle Webb and Mansara Hassan
17. Voices: The Moral Compass, the Compass Thief, and the Possibility of Grace
William E. Rosa

To order or learn more visit www.hospicefoundation.org or call (202) 457-5811