

Contents

Acknowledgments	i
Foreword
Mary-Frances O'Connor	iii
Introduction	vii
1. The Quest to Conceptualize “Complicated” Grief.....	1
Kenneth J. Doka
2. A Culturally Sustaining Approach to Diagnosing Prolonged Grief Disorder.....	13
Jillian M. Blueford and Nancy E. Thacker Darrow
3. Prolonged Grief in Bereaved Children and Adolescents: Developmental Features, Assessment, and Intervention	25
Christopher M. Layne, Kimberly S. Ho Misiasek, Blake A. Barrientos, Ayesha Ahmad, Kathleen André, Jonathan Gellman, Chloe Golden, and Stevie Schapiro
4. Research on Prolonged Grief Disorder: Evolution of the Field	51
Robert A. Neimeyer and Anastasios Koukopoulos
5. Prolonged Grief Disorder and Nondeath Losses.....	67
Darcy L. Harris
6. Grief is Complicated, But is it a Disorder?	81
Joanne Cacciatore and Kara Thieleman
7. Treating Prolonged Grief as a Postloss Stress Disorder and a Form of Love	101
M. Katherine Shear
8. Applying Prolonged Grief Therapy in Clinical Practice	117
Sonya Lott
9. Voices Prolonged Grief Therapy: A Client’s Perspective.....	127
John Barba
Appendix A. Hypothesized pathways via which prolonged grief disorder (PGD) symptoms can lead to functional impairment in life domains for children and adolescents.....	134
Index	143